Coaching experience

Lizzie has over 12 years' experience in leadership and organisational coaching and consulting.

She has worked with executives, senior and emerging leaders, teams and high potential individual contributors to optimise their personal impact, maximise their work engagement and perform at their best, benefitting organisation success and individual wellbeing.

Lizzie has a deep interest in what positive psychology and behavioural science research has to say about what enables people to thrive, individually and collectively. She applies her understanding of organisational dynamics with evidence from these disciplines into actionable, targeted support for clients, to develop their capability, overcome barriers, leverage their potential and find their pathway to be the best they can be.

Lizzie couples her commercial insight, with a strong professional focus and an engaging style to create credibility and trust with her clients which facilitates accelerated growth and sustainable impact.

She has worked with clients across a range of industry sectors including federal, state and local government, resources, professional services, health, not-for-profit, education and high-performance sport.
